The Exonerated

by Jessica Blank
and Erik Jensen

Directed by Kathe Park

Culled from interviews, letters, transcripts, case files and the public record, The Exonerated tells the true stories of six wrongfully convicted survivors of death row in their own words. The six interwoven stories paint a picture of an American justice system gone horribly wrong--and of six brave souls who persevered to survive it.

Produced by special arrangement with Darmatist's Play Service.
